Rights to Coverage
If you chose to decline coverage for yourself or dependents (including your spouse) because of other health care coverage, you may enroll yourself or your dependents in this plan prior to the next open enrollment period (under certain circumstances, please contact HR for a full description of circumstances). To do this, you must have involuntarily lost your other coverage and we must receive your enrollment application within 10 days after your other coverage ended. Additionally, if you have new dependents as a result of marriage, birth, adoption, or placement for adoption, you may be able to enroll yourself and dependent, provided we receive your completed enrollment application within 30 days after the marriage. birth, adoption, or placement for adoption.
